1. On the first part of the jour ney I was look-ing at all the life. There were plants and birds and rocks and things. There was sand and hills and rings. The first thing I met was a fly with a buzz and the sky with no clouds. The heat was hot and the ground was dry but the air was full of sound. I've been through the de-sert on a horse with no name. It felt good to be out of the rain. In the
